Submission and Recommendations

We support the kaupapa to ensure Aotearoa New Zealand meets it's obligations to our tamariki and taiohi under UNCRoC.

We remain concerned that progress towards enacting all aspects of UNCRoC remains slow.

Our main points:

Acknowledgement of work done to date
 NZCCSS acknowledge the work done by successive governments to date and the commitment to both public reporting and engagement in this space.

2. Areas of potential

- * Ensure and legislate for active participation and the privileging of child and youth voice across government
- * Strengthen the rights of children to play, both in the community and in educational spaces
- * Acknowledge the impact of disability and work to remove barriers to accessing education – including where the disability relates to a learning need or mental health

3. Areas of concern

- * Develop and implement effective policy that acknowledges the different ages and stages across the lifespan – the current frameworks and policies in Aotearoa make little to no provision for differences in age or developmental needs
- * Require that the children and young persons workforce are well trained and supported to work alongside children and young people. This workforce needs to be able to access and complete qualifications specific to children rather than homogenous qualifications that are too broad, leading to graduates that are lacking in knowledge and ability to work safely with children and young people
- * Insist that we are child centred in all that we do, rather than whānau-led approaches
